

THE SIGNATURE SERVICE

What is it?

The Signature Service offered by Dennemeyer helps trademark owners reduce their administrative burden associated with mandatory renewal documentation.

Why do I need this service?

Out of 218 trademark jurisdictions, 160 (in orange) require supporting documentation to maintain the validity of a trademark. This represents about 73% of the global total.

Key benefit #1

By being a beneficiary of the Signature Service, you will no longer have to sign and legally execute renewal documents, such as a Power of Attorney (PoA), required for the renewal procedure in multiple countries. We will take care of it!

Key benefit #2

Reduce administrative work by up to 75% for the execution of renewal-related documents. We simplify the process and do the heavy lifting!

Streamline your process

Free yourself from excess administrative work by allowing Dennemeyer to take care of your renewal documentation. Our experienced professionals will ensure every step is carried out smoothly and successfully. All you need to do is authorize Dennemeyer to sign the documents required to renew your trademarks on your behalf.

Outsource administrative work

Turning over the bureaucratic workload of trademark renewals to industry specialists frees up your staff resources to focus on core business operations. Using the Signature Service, you can center on what matters and find peace of mind.

Gain efficiencies

Process experts can handle all the tasks of trademark renewals more quickly and economically than non-dedicated personnel. Transferring the responsibility of document completion to Dennemeyer will enable you to use your time on more essential IP matters, such as decision-making.
